

Note to all NUNO delegates:

All parts of the position paper should be double spaced and be written in paragraph format. Be sure to answer the guiding questions below. Guiding questions do not need to be answered in the order listed below. Feel free to expand your position paper beyond the guiding questions if you believe the information is relevant and of importance.

PART 1: BACKGROUND OF TOPIC - Double Spaced, Paragraph Format

What was the First Crusade and what occurred? What were the progression of events that occurred during this time? Was conflict resolved? Why was this significant in history? What was the lasting impact? (Include specific examples of immediate and lasting repercussions)

PART 2: FAMILY INVOLVEMENT - Double Spaced, Paragraph Format

What goals did your group have? What specific actions did your group take? How effective was your group over this time period? (Provide specific examples to support your assertion) How did your group contribute? (Provide specific examples to support your assertion) Did they take part in any important events? What was your group's biggest advantages and/or disadvantages throughout the First Crusade?

PART 3: PERSONAL POLICY - Double Spaced, Paragraph Format Use Background of Topic, Possible Actions, and your designated Character

What is your person's policy/character background? What are his/her thoughts towards the First Crusade? How will your policy affect your perspective and actions in committee? Is your character's opinion with or against the general consensus of your group's ideals? How willing are you to compromise with contrasting perspectives? (And to what extent) What specific trait or skill does your character have that will help your committee? (If it isn't specified you have the flexibility to create a trait or skill as long as it isn't conflicting with your policy or other characters' skills) Why is your character's ideology the best for dealing with the First Crusade?

PART 4: PLAN OF ACTION - Double Spaced, Paragraph Format

What should your group do to claim Jerusalem? How and why? How do we effectively establish lasting peace in the area? What specific actions do you seek to take in committee? (Must be in accordance with your character policy and be specific) What compromises will you make with other committees? Are there any other groups specifically that you should or should not align with?

PART 5: WORKS CITED - MLA Format Cite sources used